INTRODUCTION

This is a preview version of “5900+ Cocktail Recipes” containing 136 recipes. To find out more information about the full printed version containing over 5900 cocktail recipes, visit <http://www.DaveAVance.com/>.

5900+ Cocktail Recipes was inspired by my first creation, ShotDrinks.com, in June of the year 2000. The website offers over 10,000 searchable cocktail recipes. Over the years, recipes have been added by me, website visitors and liquor companies. Original ShotDrinks.com recipes can be found on the website and in this book.

While bartending, I found a lack of cocktail recipe books that included a wealth of past and present recipes. I decided to write this book to include as many recipes as possible within the limited size of a book. If there's a recipe that's not included in the book, I encourage you to visit ShotDrinks.com. I have included blank pages at the end of this book for you to write recipes on.

We all know there are many cocktails with different names, but have the same ingredients. This is due to many reasons and is impossible to control. It's not like there is a national registration system for cocktail names. Since different areas of the country may call the same cocktail something else, I have included them in this book. I have removed cocktails with the same exact name even though the ingredients may be slightly different. If you are looking for a different variation of a cocktail than what's shown in this book, you should visit ShotDrinks.com.

This book contains an index, listing every cocktail included in the book. If you find flipping through the nearly 800 pages is becoming tedious, refer to the index to find the cocktail.

I hope you find this book useful, whether it is for your home or behind the bar. I thank you for reading 5900+ Cocktail Recipes. Remember, drink responsibly.
